In an effort to improve the metrics which we use to evaluate the progress and success of events requesting TAC funding, we have provided a scorecard for your use. This is a tool that you can use to provide the TAC committee with information that will help make better funding decisions. If you're able to utilize the entire scorecard that would be ideal, however, please use the sections that are most pertinent to you and your event. Please know that we will be using this scorecard to evaluate requests, so while the use of the scorecard is voluntary, this information is valuable to determine your award. The scorecard will be made available for download on the City of Cannon Beach website along with the application packet documents. Examples and suggestions will be provided for its use. CITY OF CANNON BEACH (CITY)
TOURISM AND ARTS COMMISSION (TAC)
GUIDELINES FOR ADMINISTRATION OF TOURISM AND ARTS FUND (TAF)

I. PURPOSE:

The purpose of the Tourism and Arts Commission is to see that expenditures from the TAF are used to attract tourists (per the definition of “tourist” in ORS 320.350) to the City through efforts directly related to marketing and enhancing the Arts in Cannon Beach. The TAF proceeds must be utilized in such a manner as to contribute to the development and improvement of the local economy through the enhancement, expansion, support and promotion of tourism and the arts.

II. GENERAL GUIDELINES:

- a) Priority will be given to grant applicants that demonstrate an effort to generate overnight tourists, tourists traveling more than 50 miles from their community of residence, and collaboration with various local businesses and/or non-profit organizations through strategic partnerships to leverage TAF resources being sought.
- b) Use of TAF resources may include but is not limited to: personnel, special events, signage, attractions, owner-occupied facility development, promotional materials and advertising which furthers tourism in the City, specifically overnight tourists and tourists traveling from more than 50 miles from their community of residence, directly benefiting the local economy, the arts and culture, and the image of the City.
- c) Funding for special events is limited to personnel, activities, events, program development or marketing strategies for ongoing events that can be directly related to generating overnight tourists or tourists traveling from more than 50 miles to Cannon Beach, or an annual event with introduction of new or expanded attractions or to sustain an already existing event that meets the above mentioned mission.

III. TIMELINES:

- a) Applications and grant guidelines will be available at City Hall by the first Wednesday in March of each year. The application closing date is the first Wednesday of May and completed applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to City Hall by that date. The review of applications by the TAC will begin after the closing date and awards will be made within 75 days of the closing date.
- b) At the discretion of the TAC, the annual process may include a second application cycle for new projects and programs if funding is available in an amount not to exceed 10% of the budgeted estimate.

IV. DETERMINATION PROCEDURE AND APPLICATION

- a) The TAC will determine the amounts distributed to each organization based on the application. A recipient organization must be a 501(c)3, 501(c)6 or other non profit entity. Proposed uses of TAF grant funds must comply with all current City ordinances and ORS 320.350.
- b) Each application must provide an analysis of the scope, duration, sustainability (if applicable to the project) and potential economic impact on the City. Annual events should demonstrate an effort to achieve future financial stability and sustainability.

- c) Each application must include a description of the project, the target market, the advertising and promotion plan and the evaluation process including how use of the funds is tied to generating tourists and promoting the Arts.
- d) Consideration will be given to projects and programs that are unique, collaborative in nature and consistent with the qualities of Cannon Beach.
- e) Applications will also be judged very carefully on how well the applicant can quantify the number of hotel rooms booked and how many tourists traveled more than 50 miles from their residence as a direct result of the event, in order to comply with the statute.
- f) Annual applications should also include the following: letter from the IRS granting tax-exempt status; board of directors list; detailed project budget depicting both revenues and expenses for each applicable year (if ensuing years contain different budget than the first year); organization's budget for current year; financial statement for most recently completed fiscal year; and a completed and signed application form.
- g) An organization may be denied a TAF award if previously awarded TAF projects have not complied with TAF procedures and guidelines including lack of filing a financial report and/or program evaluation.

V. DISTRIBUTION SCHEDULE AND PROJECT EVALUATIONS

- a) Mid-term and final project evaluations will be required including financial and program information and results. The mid-term evaluation is due March 15 of the fiscal year in which the distributions are made. The final project evaluation is due within 30 days of either the completion of the event or end of the City's fiscal year, whichever occurs first.
- b) The TAF awards will be distributed on a quarterly basis with the first distribution made by November 15th of each City fiscal year and every 3 months thereafter.
- c) While it is the general goal of the TAC to make the annual awards equal to the total amount estimated to be deposited in the TAF, the TAC reserves the right to withhold excess funds. Monies collected in excess of the amount budgeted for grants will be held in reserve and may be used to 1) provide a fund surplus at the end of the fiscal year, 2) cover any future shortfall of the Transient Lodging Tax or 3) support such additional activities and programs recommended by the TAC.

VI. PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

- a) Applicants must be a qualified tax exempt organization.
- b) Priority will be given for events within Cannon Beach during the shoulder and winter tourist season defined as September through June. WHEREAS the Cannon Beach City Council desires to increase the amount of the transient lodging tax from six percent (6%) to seven percent (7%);

WHEREAS the Oregon Revised Statutes Chapter 320 specifies that no less than 70% of the 1% increase must be dedicated to tourism and tourism related facilities and that no more than 30% of the increase may be dedicated to fund City services;

WHEREAS the City Council desires that the intended purpose of 70% of the 1% increase is to develop and support events and attractions that enhance tourism, in accordance with ORS 320.300 and 320.350, specifically tourists staying overnight in or traveling distances greater than 50 miles to Cannon Beach, and with additional emphasis given to tourism tied to the arts community of Cannon Beach;

WHEREAS 70% of the 1% increase would be collected and maintained in a fund entitled the "Tourism and Arts Fund";

WHEREAS a City Committee, the "Cannon Beach Tourism and Arts Commission", is created to develop grant guidelines and procedures to distribute and account for the monies in the "Tourism and Arts Fund" and that these procedures and any subsequent changes to the procedures be presented for approval to the City Council before implementation of such procedures;

WHEREAS the intent is to distribute monies in the Tourism and Arts Fund on a quarterly basis with the first distribution to be made to the recipients during November of each year with ensuing distributions during February, May and August;

WHEREAS the recipients of the Tourism and Arts Fund understand that the level of funding may fluctuate on a quarterly basis due to the fact that the amount of money in the Fund is entirely dependent upon the amount of tax revenue collected on a quarterly basis from the Lodging Tax;

WHEREAS it is the expectation of the Council that all recipients of the monies from the Tourism and Arts Fund exemplify accountability and transparency in all matters related to the application of these funds, further it is imperative that the recipients demonstrate to the Tourism and Arts Commission that they are in compliance with the State statute (ORS Chapter 320), City Ordinance and local rules related to the use of these funds;

WHEREAS the Tourism and Arts Commission shall present for approval to the City Council their recommendations as to grant recipients and amounts of such grants from the Tourism and Art Fund before final awards and distributions are made;

WHEREAS the Council recognizes the need for the recipients of these funds to rely upon funding from year to year; therefore, applicants may apply for multi-year grants contingent upon the Tourism and Arts Commission's annual review of the recipient's application and use of the funding to ensure compliance with the State statute (ORS Chapter 320), City Ordinance and local rules related to the use of the funds; and

WHEREAS the Cannon Beach Tourism and Arts Commission shall be comprised of a total of five (5) voting members. Each member shall have experience in one or more of the following areas: public relations, marketing, advertising, tourism, lodging, promotions, events promotion and/or publicity.

NOW, THEREFORE, the City of Cannon Beach does ordain as follows:

Section 1. Amend the Municipal Code, 3.12.020 Tax imposed, to read as follows:

A. As of July 1, 2010 a transient shall pay a tax in the amount of seven percent for the privilege of occupancy in a hotel in the city. The tax constitutes a debt owed by the transient to the city and the debt is extinguished only when the tax is remitted by the operator to the city. The transient shall pay the tax to the operator at the time rent is paid. The operator shall enter the tax into the record when rent is collected if the operator keeps records on the accrual accounting basis. If the rent is paid in installments, a proportionate share of the tax shall be paid by the transient to the operator with each installment. In all cases, rent is paid or charged for occupancy shall exclude the sale of goods, services or commodities. (Ord. 91-8 § 1: Ord. 86-5 § 1: Ord. 83-21 §2)

B. Such tax increase shall not apply to reservations for lodging in the City of Cannon Beach made prior to the passage of this Ordinance. Reservations made prior to the passage of the Ordinance by the City Council are exempt from the 1% lodging tax increase; however, such tax increase shall apply to all reservations made after the date of passage of the Ordinance.

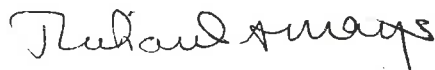

C. Pursuant to ORS 320.350, 70% of the net proceeds from the additional 1% of the transient lodging tax shall be used for the purposes described in ORS 320.350 (5)(a) or (c) which states that such funds shall be used for tourism promotion or tourism related facilities. Pursuant to ORS 320.350 (5)(A)(6), 30% of the net proceeds from the increased lodging tax may be used by the City for funding City services.

(b) Fund city or county services; or

(c) Finance or refinance the debt of tourism-related facilities and pay reasonable administrative costs incurred in financing or refinancing that debt, provided that:

(6) At least 70 percent of net revenue from a new or increased local transient lodging tax shall be used for the purposes described in subsection (5)(a) or (c) of this section. Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/fw9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)

- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)

- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States:

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code on page 3 and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships above.

What is FATCA reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code on page 3 and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Note. ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040/1040A/1040EZ you filed with your application.

b. Sole proprietor or single-member LLC. Enter your individual name as shown on your 1040/1040A/1040EZ on line 1. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2, "Business name/disregarded entity name." If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, you may enter it on line 2.

Line 3

Check the appropriate box in line 3 for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box in line 3.

If the LLC has filed Form 8832 or 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, check the "Limited Liability Company" box and in the space provided enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If it is a single-member LLC that is a disregarded entity, do not check the "Limited Liability Company" box; instead check the first box in line 3 "Individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC."

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

A—An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a) or any individual retirement plan as defined in section 7701(a)(37)

C—A state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. commonwealth or possession, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities

D—A corporation the stock of which is regularly traded on one or more established securities markets, as described in Regulations section 1.1472-1(c)(1)(i)

K—A broker

L—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947(a)(1)

M—A tax exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan

Note. You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on this page), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, or 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.
